Titus Appoints Tom Schmitt

Director for Small Business/Personal Tax & Accounting Practice

MILWAUKEE (January 4, 2010) – Titus, an independent national consulting firm headquartered in Milwaukee, has appointed Thomas Schmitt, a Wisconsin CPA, to lead its specialty practice designed to provide highly qualified and experienced professionals to assist small businesses and individuals with their tax and accounting needs.

Schmitt has 15 years of experience operating an independent CPA practice focused on accounting and tax consulting for small business and individuals. Schmitt began his career with public accounting firms Deloitte & Touche and KPMG Peat Marwick in Milwaukee. Schmitt will focus Titus' practice primarily within the state of the Wisconsin for the short-term with the intent to expand to Titus' other markets in the future.

“There is a real need among small and emerging businesses and individuals with business interests or complex financial situations for assistance with tax and accounting issues, delivered by experienced professionals with a high level of expertise at affordable rates,” according to Titus President and CEO Scott Seefeld. “Our reputation for serving large and mid-sized organizations over the past 10 years, has led to many referrals for tax and accounting consulting opportunities within the small business and personal sector.”

Titus currently serves more than 1,000 clients through its Small Business/Personal Tax and Accounting Practice.

The Corporate headquarters of Titus is located at 330 E. Kilbourn Ave., Suite 1425 in downtown Milwaukee; phone 414-727-0400.
